DESCRIPTION:

AKEMASHITE OMEDETO GOZAIMASU, is the traditional new year's greetings in Japan as Happy New Year. Now you are in Japan, so let's go to Imperial Palace and greet to Japanese Royalty, called Ippan Sanga. This is rare opportunity to see them directly. The Emperor and his family will wave to the crowd from CHO-WA DEN PALACE (a part of the Imperial Palace) balcony with new years greeting. It will be short time but good experience of Japanese traditional/official event (*You may have to stand on line for approximately 45 minutes before entering the event grounds).

We also take you to Odaiba; one of the most popular shopping and entertainment district in Tokyo. Built on reclaimed land dating back to the Edo Period, this impressive shopping complex consists of several shopping malls, theme parks and museums. One area, PALETTE TOWN, offers colorful attractions including Mega Web, a large-scale multimedia car amusement/exhibition center; and Venus Fort, a European-style theme amusement/shopping town for ladies that includes 50 outlet shops. Enjoy a ride on the Yurikamome Line – Tokyo's first fully automated transit system. This train controlled entirely by computers will transport you to Aqua City, an entertainment center featuring many amusement and indoor rides. Also, Decks Tokyo Beach featuring a showcase of the latest Japanese arcade games called "Tokyo Joypolis" as well as many other stores, assortment restaurants. Diver City Tokyo Plaza is the latest shopping mall which home of Gundam (Robot character of animation) has H&M, FOREVER 21, OLD NAVY and more!

Odaiba is also home to Daikanransha, the 11th tallest Ferris Wheel and the world's 3rd tallest in Japan. The slowly revolving Ferris wheel offers breathtaking views of Tokyo Tower, Rainbow Bridge, Tokyo Television Station and the surrounding Tokyo skyline. Odaiba is considered "free time" and no admission or attraction fees are included in the price of the tour (<http://bit.ly/ODAIBA>).
