DESCRIPTION:

Have you ever seen live Sumo matches with your own eyes? This tour provides an opportunity to see the Japanese national sports. We will see the Regular Sumo tournament called HA-TSU-BA-SHO means January's Sumo Tournament at Ryogoku Kokugikan Hall in Tokyo. You will see SEN-SHU-RAKU means last day matches of the tournament from lower to higher rank. You would know the clear difference of power of both JU-RYO (lower grade wrestlers) and MAKUUCHI (Main wrestlers) especially O-ZEKI and YOKOZUNA. You also can see the champion ship's award ceremony after finish all the bout. Don't miss this exiting tour and make it your good memories in Japan! If you have portable fm radio, you can listen English announce by it (fm 78.3) at Kokugikan Hall. Or, reasonably priced rentals are available at the General Information Counters on the 1st floor of it (<http://www.japan-guide.com/e/e2080.html>). You also have chance to visit Edo Tokyo Museum before the MAKUUCHI wrestler's bout. The museum displays how the Shogun and Samurai lived and how the merchants and craftsmen catered to them. English signs and brochures are provided and, to enjoy the experience even more, portable audio guide are available at the entrance for a ¥1,000 refundable deposit (<http://bit.ly/EDOTOKYO>). Before that, you can enjoy delicious buffet at the New Sanno Hotel.
